CROSSROADS CHURCH

CHURCH HISTORY

Crossroads Church was established in Prince Albert as a Pentecostal assembly, growing from a small gathering of believers seeking Spirit-empowered ministry. Affiliated with the PAOC, it has served the community for decades, focusing on local outreach and family discipleship. The church has expanded its facilities to include a mortgage-free building with a gym and a main sanctuary seating 300, supporting vibrant worship and community events.

Over its history, Crossroads Church has been focused on a few essentials:

Reaching those who are outside of the church growing those who are part of the Crossroads family providing resources for missions at home + around the world

DIVERSE & MULTI-GENERATIONAL

Crossroads is a welcoming, family-oriented church in Prince Albert, drawing people from various backgrounds, including strong Indigenous influences. It emphasizes multi-generational ministry, with programs for all ages, and fosters a sense of community among its attendees from all walks of life.

GATEWAY TO THE NORTH

Prince Albert is known as the Gateway to the North, offering access to vast wilderness areas, including Prince Albert National Park with its bison herds, lakes, and hiking trails.

WHY Prince Albert?

FOODIE HAVEN

From local diners to farm-to-table eateries, Prince Albert features fresh Saskatchewan produce and unique spots like perogie houses, reflecting its multicultural roots.

EXCELLENT POST-SECONDARY EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

Saskatchewan Polytechnic's Prince Albert campus offers programs in nursing, business, and trades, alongside other institutions providing theological and vocational training.

POPULATION: 38,000

A YOUNG, GROWING, FRIENDLY CITY.

The city has a median age of around 38 years, with a diverse population including significant Métis and First Nations communities.
60+ KILOMETERS OF RIVER TRAILS

The North Saskatchewan River winds through the city, providing trails for walking, biking, and cross-country skiing, connecting parks, historical sites, and recreational areas.

OUTDOOR PARADISE

Prince Albert is surrounded by forests, lakes, and rivers, making it ideal for fishing, boating, camping, and winter sports. The nearby national park offers wildlife viewing and nature experiences.

LIVE MUSIC & CULTURAL SCENE

The city hosts festivals like the Prince Albert Winter Festival and cultural events celebrating Indigenous heritage, with a vibrant arts community.

SHORT COMMUTE TIMES + A SOLID INFRASTRUCTURE

WHY Saskatchewan?

PEOPLE ARE NICER HERE

It's a bit ridiculous.

LOW COST OF LIVING

Saskatchewan ranks as the most affordable province to live and raise a family in.

320 + DAYS OF SUNSHINE A YEAR.

It's true, Saskatchewan's winters can be c-c-cold, but the summers are sizzling! Historically, Saskatchewan can get as hot as 40°C in the summer. Saskatchewan's cities average over 2,300 hours of sunshine per year. And how about those prairie summer sunsets – there's a reason Saskatchewan is called the Land of Living Skies!

EXPLORE PLENTY OF NATURAL SPACES

Saskatchewan is a land that offers breathtaking, ever-changing skies above and beautiful nature all around you that takes the form of rolling hills, national parks, sand dunes, vast prairies and more than one hundred thousand lakes and rivers.

100 THOUSAND LAKES.
