

EVANGEL

BATHURST

Position: Next Gen Pastor

PURPOSE: We are looking for a passionate individual with a missional heart to help our church be mobilized to reach Elementary and High School students in our city with the message of Jesus. If you love Jesus, love kids, and want to live in one of the most beautiful settings in Eastern Canada, this position may just be for you!

CHARACTER: This person will show a deep love for Jesus and a deep commitment to his kingdom mission. This individual will need to be self-motivated and a loyal team player who is willing to commit to relational effectiveness over program success.

QUALIFICATIONS: The right individual for this role will have some experience and success in evangelism, organizing outreach strategies, and leading a team. The role is less about running church programs than it is about engaging in the community, although both will be in view. If she/he does not have formal theological training, they should have some formational training (YWAM, DTS, etc.) and must be willing to pursue at least the core level of courses necessary for the Recognition Of Ministry credential with the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada. Ability to speak French would be an asset but not required.

EXPECTATIONS:

This role may be anywhere from half-time to full-time position, and this will be determined in conversation with the individual.

This person will be expected to:

- Develop strategies for outreach to students in our city
- Develop teams to assist in reaching and discipling the students
- Communicating with the staff team both formally in weekly staff meetings, but also informally in coordinating ministry efforts
- Communicate with their teams in mentoring and coordinating ministry planning
- Communicate relationally with the students in the outreach programs to help them feel valued and connected
- Relate to the Lead Pastor in a mentoring capacity
- Assist the Lead Pastor as needed with general church ministry

If you think you may be a fit for this role and would like to explore it more please contact the Lead Pastor, Andrew Bauer, with a resume by emailing andrewbauer@evangelbathurst.ca or for more information you can call our office at (506) 546-2172.
